

Sample answers - DCMI metadata for Frost's After apple-picking

DCMI creator: Frost, Robert, 1874-1963

DCMI format: html

DCMI identifier: <https://poets.org/poem/after-apple-picking>

DCMI title: After apple-picking

DCMI description: Robert Frost's poem "After apple-picking." After a long day of apple-picking the picker feels tired and drowsy, but wonders whether it is a normal, end-of-the-day sleep or something deeper.

DCMI type: text

DCMI publisher: Academy of American Poets

DCMI source: poets.org

DCMI relation: Part of: Frost, Robert, 1874-1963. North of Boston. 1914

DCMI rights: This poem is in the public domain.

DCMI subject (keywords): autumn, fall, apples, apple-picking, worry, work, sleep, dissatisfaction, regret, cycle of life and death